

A lit red candle stands on the left, its flame glowing. In the foreground, an open book with white pages is visible. To the right, a vibrant red poinsettia flower is in focus. The background is softly blurred, showing more of the flower and some greenery.

The end is where we start from.

all manner of thing shall be well

Lift from our hands our cares and tasks, and all through the night bear in your bosom the weight of our burdens and sorrows, that in this night of wonder we may feed upon your love and power, for it was in the night that you gave to us your very self in Jesus Christ our Lord...*(silent prayer)
